

MHC COMMUNITY TREK

PHILIPPINE/MHC PARTICIPATION @ GLOBAL PEACE FESTIVAL (GPF) , 9 August 2008 West Lawn, US Capitol, Washington DC

Matthew Aninzo of Filipino Community of St. Rose of Lima with Bernardo Bernardo, famous Filipino actor who impressed local and international GPF delegates with his great showmanship.

The US Capitol, a perfect background for a high profile Global Peace Festival attended by thousands of delegates from different countries and from other US States.

MHC spearheaded Philippine delegation was composed of Filipino teachers from Baltimore, MD led by MHC Adviser Flor Pantalunan & Bien Dinglas, Spotsylvania and Stafford, Virginia, led by Pat Rosario & Lyra Cabanlit, MHC Officers & supporters (Antonio & Denia Calaro, Isidora Badua, Ding & Remy Cabrera etc.), Heritage Rondalla of New Jersey and Fil-Am groups from other States.

Heritage Rondalla of New Jersey headed by its Executive Director Giovani Paquit performs the Binasuan & Itik-itik to the live Rondalla music

MHC, as core partner of the Festival, delivered its message of peace and affirmed its commitment for Global Peace and One Family under God through one of MHC's Executive Directors, Arnedo S. Valera Esq.

MHC's Fil-Am Heritage Dance Ensemble dances the Subli. Paul, Raymund, Alex with guest performers from Texas, Jennifer, Crystal & Cecil.

Captivating the audience, Nicole and Matthew together with Raymund and Paul perform the Philippines' world renowned dance "TINIKLING"

The other 2 MHC Executive Directors, Grace Valera-Jaramillo & Jesse A. Gatchalian pose with international Filipino singer Anthony Castelo and GPF's Joy Theriot

MHC's finale number during the cultural segment was the warm touching song "God Bless the U.S.A" performed by ISA's reigning Miss Teenage-Philippines U.S.A., Hannah Cabrera Johnson

PHILIPPINE FIESTA, 16-17 August 2008, Meadowlands, NEW JERSEY (2 Photos from the Phil.Fiesta website)

Philippine Fiesta President & Vice President Nanding & Mila Mendez with celebrities Marian Rivera Dindong Dantes & Bea Alonzo

GPF's Ed Busque and Elmo de La Madrid with MHC's Jesse A. Gatchalian. MHC officers & supporters go to the Philippine Fiesta in New Jersey every year

